The Premises:

Nice enough ground floor flat in the London Earls Court area. Good facilities, easy transport links etc. Small but cosy.

The Lady:

Sonata is the same girl as the pictures would suggest, but she does not look an awful lot like her pictures. It was a little bit disappointing to tell the truth, and I expected more from the Russian girls (they are usually my favourite). That's not to say that she wasn't attractive, she was. Still very pretty. She was a little rounder than her pictures would suggest too, with a larger ass. She doesn't speak a lot of English at all, and communication was not easy, but she is a nice girl. I would not recommend however, considering that there are so many other Russian girls available. Angels of London were very good with the booking, and accepted my criticisms afterwards. We often roll the dice in this hobby, as you know, and this one was not worth the fee I paid.

The Story:

As I explained, I was surprised when I met Sonata, since she is not much like her glamorous pictures. She wasn't wearing anything fancy either, just a robe, so it was double the disappointment. I usually like a bit of an effort, or to at least wear some lingerie. When I saw Sonata she was new, had only been here three days. She wasn't keen on kissing, but she was a little over keen on the sanitisation of literally everything. After my shower I my hands were sanitised, and before any action, my cock was sanitised too. She sanitised much of herself too. Even in a position change, she went ahead with her bottle of sanitiser and did it all again. Was a bit of a turn off to say the least. Shame, because she's a pretty girl. She was friendly and cheerful enough, but perhaps it's not for her.
