The Premises:

Ego massage in Fenny Stratford, Milton Keynes. A popular well established venue located next door to Milton Keynes escorts. Free car park that tends to be busy all the time but you can generally get a space. I imagine it's busy due to the fact you have two establishments in one place.

I have only this year started to visit Ego's after looking at their website and thought I would like to try the erotic massage service as a full sexual service was something that I was no longer finding appealing. Within a few months I had built up a few visits and the majority of them have been with Cherry. On my previous visit with her I informed her that I was considering a 90 minute visit and it would be nice to offer her a massage as I also would like to put some massage techniques to practice.

I arrived for my appointment at 2pm and was greeted at the door by the receptionist who I have to mention is a very attractive lady and has very captivating eyes. She has a warm nature about her and showed me to the massage room in a professional manner. I wish I had asked her name just so I could drop it into this review. Perhaps I will ask next time.

The Lady:

Soon after I had refreshed myself in the shower, Cherry entered the room in her usual happy and talkative way. Her first words were, "I thought it was you, who's booked me for 90 minutes?" It was a fair comment as I didn't actually say when I would be back for my marathon session.

Cherry then apologised in advanced as she said she had forgotten her lingerie set that day. She said this as she was removing her massage coat to reveal her fantastic figure where she only now had a black g string left on. For those who have not visited Cherry I can only say you don't know what you're missing. Of the ladies I have seen at Egos, She by far has the best body. She has a caramel toned skin with a very nice behind and curves in all the right places. But as I have already said to her, her breasts are simply amazing, a good size and can really be utilised during a body to body massage. And this is all 100% natural. It must also be noted that her beauty is best shown in her face and I enjoy listening to her northern accent.

The Story:

Cherry's first question was who was being massaged first? This quickly turned into her insistence that she was going to be massaged first. With that decided the black g string was whipped off so quick that I missed it myself. It was a shame she forgot her lingerie but here she is completely naked lying down ready for me to go to work on all her muscle groups... I was hardly going to complain about the lack of lingerie...

I picked up the bottle of massage oil and started to apply oil to her lower legs and work it into her calf's and hamstring using the techniques I was trying out. I continued to iron out her leg muscles moving up to the bottom of her buttocks. Working my hands around and over the curves of her body is a great pleasure for me as I hoped it was for her. She commented that she thought it was nice that I didn't go straight for her vagina. I responded by letting her know that I'm building up this massage and the best should be saved for last. I then spent some time working on her upper and lower back. She pointed out that she likes her spinal cord worked on. I was happy to oblige and gave that area some focus. With a lot of the oil worked in I put some into the palm of my hand and dripped it over her bum so it dripped down into her behind and over her vagina, I then gave a brief massage into that area but not too much, just more as a signal that I was beginning to get more intimate.

I then asked her to turn over so I could work on her front. I said to her that unfortunately I don't have the amazing breasts that she has so I will not be able to give her a great boob massage but I will try with my hairy chest. She smiled and said that was fine.. the massage for her front was similar to that of her back although now I got to give those fantastic boobs a massage although in truth I just wanted to play with them. By now she had spread her legs and began to play with herself whilst I worked on her shoulders and gently kissed her neck and ear lobe's. After she felt relaxed enough I gave her a kiss on the lips and her forehead as a sign that my task had been completed.

I then said to her that 45 minutes had passed and the second half belonged to me. She was clearly very relaxed and sighed at the thought of returning the favour. Well you did insist on being massaged first..., she looked at me with that cheeky look she has and said, "I know."

My massage was to the same high standard as my previous visits. When she runs her hands over me it triggers an all over body orgasim in me like electrical currents flowing through me. As the time passed I could hear the rain outside whilst we chatted away and all my muscle groups were being worked on. In fact I could have easily forgotten about time. As the session was drawing to its finality my happy ending was given whilst Cherry showed off her magnificent breasts oiled up.

After I had showered and got dressed I settled the fee and we chatted about when I could make another appointment. I said I would see when I'm not busy with work and make another appointment. I can't see it being too long as Cherry is my number 1 choice at Egos, in fact she's my only choice. The problem I have now is how can I book anything less than 90 minutes... :)))
