The Premises:

The venue was a discreet, neat, tidy and clean apartment in the Central Hub shopping district of Milton Keynes with ample parking nearby.

The Lady:

Veronica is European, 42y, 5' 6", 34E, size 12, brown/blonde hair, shaved pubic hair. She has a few piercings and tattoos but nothing extensive. She has small metal bars through her nipples, which are rather fun and give a lovely tactile contrast to her soft nipples themselves.

I know it is a cliché, but her photos really do not do her justice. Some are very uninspiring and AE ought to take some new ones. The photos that give the best impression of her are the top row left, bare breasted, and bottom row right, black skirt and white top with her hands behind her head again showcasing her breasts.

As usual with AE, Veronica greeted me in a tasteful lingerie set. Hers was black and very upmarket and comprised a deep plunge bra showcasing her splendid breasts, brief panties and an extensive suspender belt, plus stockings and high heels

Veronica speaks extremely good idiomatic English, which she deployed to great effect in our role play.

The Story:

We began with a femdom role play, in a lighthearted vein, nothing harsh. I was a handyman who had misbehaved and Veronica was a very convincing nurse who reprimanded him. Veronica spanked me for various offences against her fellow nurses and then made me strip for a prostate examination and some more light spanking on the bare.

We then reversed roles. I was a doctor and Veronica's boss. Veronica was the same nurse, auditioning to please a hospital inspector on his forthcoming visit. She gave me her splendid breasts to fondle and sat on my face for a licking before 69 and finally cowgirl when Veronica skilfully milked me dry.

In between the action, Veronica conversed extensively and intelligently about a range of subjects.

Overall, this was an excellent session. Veronica is very attractive, fun to talk to, great at role play, highly skilled at the technical aspects and well worth another visit.
