The Story:

First time I have visited Gia and also because of her behaviour during the visit the last.

She is a lovely lady and open minded but I take a real issue with a WG answering phone calls and texting (for ages) mid visit at my exepense. She spent ages on her phone on multiple occasions. At one point she was on top doing the business cowgirl style, and she got a ping and she litterally paused the business so that she could read and reply to her message for what seemed like forever. I mean seriously who does that? This and the fact she started vaping as soon as we had finished!

Really torn over leading this review, but answering calls and texting is just not on
