The Premises:

Apartment in Milton Keynes central hub near Sainsbury's.

First time going to this location but found the apartment easy enough though got a little lost once inside.

Much like annabellas other apartments, totally discreet. Clean nice size room, well decorated.

The Lady:

Much like her photos. Blonde hair, curves in all the right places, amazing boobs that I couldn't keep my hands off through out! And absolute beautiful smile.

The Story:

Was welcomed into the flat by Kris in a nice black laced underwear, stockings and the rainbow effect high heels she wears in the online photos. Showed me to the room, asked if I would a drink, while she just got herself ready. Return moments later with a glass of water, we did a quick swap water for money. Took a quick sip of water, placed the glass down and as I turn back toward her she was pulling toward her to start french kissing. Great way to start any session and blow any nerves out of my system straight away!

Within second my hands were caressing her waist, arse, she proceeded to remove my top then her bra, and pulled my back toward so our bodies were press tight together she started to undo my trousers and reached inside and pretty soon I was rock hard.

Kris asked if I was ready to go on the bed which I was more than happy to do so. She quickly took of her heels and pants and followed me on the bed but first leaning over for more french kissing really using her tongue well. Then onto owo which was incredible! She did mention she doesn't do cim but that doesn't bother me. Owo was so good, occasionally going lower to suck on my balls and her hands would venturing around my body with gentle but kinky touches. I could feel myself getting close already so asked if I could go down on her, so she lay back and allowed me to lick and play her nice wet pussy, she was making all the right noises throughout then pulled me up toward her for more passionate kissing then back to giving me some more owo. And then time for the Johnny to come on, starting with cowgirl, she really did this with enthusiasm and kissing through and leaning closer to briefly nibble my ear. Holding my hand as she bounce away on top, made me feel she was enjoying this as much as me! Kris then suggested me on top where I could suck on her gorgeous nipples, could feel them getting harder as my tongue glided over them, in between more passionate kissing. I didn't want to cum in the bag and wanted to sample more of her owo which was incredible lay back down so she kris could work her magic for a few more minutes with more gentle touching around my body, her fingers often teasing my balls, I could feel myself getting closer and she must have sensed this so squirted some lube, rubbing away she leaned in with her chest and brought me to long climax cumming all over her hands and boobs.

But the fun didn't end there. After cleaning both me and herself up, with 20 minutes remaining, she offered to give me a massage, using body lotion which was nice, after a few minutes I asked if I could massage her which she agreed. Few more minutes passed with kris making the occasional noise to suggest she was enjoying her massage, then enthusiastically turned over to once again pull me toward her for more kissing and spent the next five minutes laying opposite each passionately kissing, touching each other, I pulled away for a moment and our eyes met and she smiled at me once again as if she enjoyed this as much as me. I complemented her on her smile which she seemed very grateful and so with time almost up she sat up keeping her hand on my chest and started rubbing my cock once again getting me close but sadly was just not enough time to finish again.

Overall 10/10 experience, would definitely see kris again!

This was my fourth visit to Annabellas and is definitely my favourite place to go. All the girls I've seen here really seem to enjoy what they do and make you feel so at ease.
