The Premises:

1 block away from the nearest tube station, 4 minutes walk if you know where you're going. Quiet residential street with a discreet front door that's not in plain sight. Parking is possible in the road, pay by phone or at the ticket machine. For people with mobility issues there are stairs to be aware of. You'll be asked to leave your shoes in the entrance and the massage room and bathroom were cosy, clean and comfortable.

The Lady:

Tall (1m83 I think?) slim lady with brown hair and eyes. Looks exactly like the photos, very friendly and welcoming. She liked that I was the around same height as she likes gliding her full body across her clients' in the body to body massage but short kings are her universal clientele. Natural body, no tattoos or body piercings. Saw me coming and opened the door before I could ring the doorbell, greeting me in a sexy little cami and invited me in. She matches your mood, if you just want to a quiet relaxing massage she will enjoy the silence with you. If you are chatty and like to talk throughout she will engage equally with you. It feels like hanging out with a sexy and talented friend who can't keep her hands off of you.

The Story:

I booked for the 2 hour Unique Girlfriend Experience

Starting in the massage room we sat down and chatted for a bit, Lucy explained first that I could have a shower to freshen up before she would knock on the bathroom door to join me and we lathered each other up in soap. I paid and was shown to the bathroom, from there you are free to touch and she makes delightful use of the mutual tactile permission. After you're both squeaky clean and sufficiently enthusiastic about getting dry and moving on to the massage you get out and dry up. In the bedroom you are invited to lay facedown as she starts the tantric massage with coconut oil and gets to work all over you, you are invited at times, should you wish, to use your hands on her too when offered. As always, do not take what you see yet there will be time for that later, graciously accept what is given. She is very passionate about the massage, she learned how to give tantric massages 3 years ago and is her favourite part of the experience. This was my 3rd tantric massage, first with Lucy and each experience has been amazingly positive with delightful differences. As explained at the beginning to me, after the first hour is up you can either opt to continue with the tantric massage or you can participate in the escort part of Lucy's services. As I enjoy reciprocating I opted for the latter and we both had a fantastic time. Afterward we relaxed and chatted for a bit while Lucy casually gave me another massage to even out and redistribute the tantric energy before I had a shower to clean up and headed out with a goodbye kiss.
