The Story:

I was visiting from across the pond for the week and really needed a release.

I came across Lucy's posting and the services she offered was exactly what I needed.

I normally don't go by photos, because 99% of the time, they don't match what you get in real life.

Spoiler alert: she is even more beautiful than the photos (at least imo).

The booking process was super simple via text/Whatsapp. I had started messaging a week prior to my trip. She responds promptly. More importantly, the manner in which she responds already put me at ease and made me even more eager to meet her. Most of the time, texting back and forth between providers feels like talking to a robot with generic one/two word responses, and until you meet that person, you have no idea what you're gonna get.

Because of the good vibes I got from her texts, (instead of doing the one hour I normally do to "test the waters") I went straight for the 2 hr. Unique Girlfriend Experience Package. This included a shower (with Lucy), a tantric massage and of course, the main event.

And boy, did I make the right the decision.

I will not go into too much details of the encounter, mostly because I don't remember most of it (in a good way).

But what I can tell you is the following. She is stunningly beautiful. What you see in the photos is what you get and more. I also didn't know I was attracted to tall women until that day. She is very eager to please, and most importantly does not try to rush.

We chatted for a bit, then head straight to the shower, which was a great introduction to her body. I wanted to stay in that shower for longer, but I knew there was more on the menu.

We then moved onto the massage part of the session. Guys, trust me, you do not want to miss out on this.

I'll be honest, my expectations were not high for the massage based on previous experiences with nuru/body to body massages. However, the key word is "tantric", and I finally understood what that word meant that evening. Let's just say, multiple times, I came close to releasing and this is without her hand/mouth/pussy in direct contact with my johnson. There is a reason she puts the word Tantric in her advertising.

Onto the main event. Any other occasion, I would've described the sex as normal. However, the tantric massage had somehow managed to make me 1000x more horny than I already was. And this definitely heightened the experience. The double edged sword of course is that I had to make extra effort to last longer :p. Anyways, after going through all the different positions, I finally exploded inside her (with bag on, of course).

I cleaned up in the shower, we chatted for a bit and I went on my way a happy man, just wondering if that was all a dream.

Highly recommended. I will definitely be back to see her.
