The Premises:

Brooklyn's on a hot day has always been one of the more cooler parlour's in Crewe due to them being one of the first to have A/C units when the mercury rises. They have recently upgraded their interior: better sofa's, showers upgraded in at least two of the rooms and, although I could be mistaken, the carpets seem a lot more cleaner than before too. It sounds like a bit of a spruce has been done which is a good sign. One notable change is that parking nearby is a bit more traffic than normal - probably due to the new Londis opening where Sainsbury's used to be.

The Lady:

The website says; "She stands 5'5 tall, aged 28, a very pretty blue eyes blonde with a petite figure (dress size 10), petite pert boobs, slimming to a tiny waist with a pert juicy bum...absolutely gorgeous." Adding that she's shaved, Billie does match the photos - in fact, she's probably a lot prettier in person. Extras-wise, no A-levels and, as another poster mentioned, extras scale up (e.g. £10 for kissing) so I settled for £20 GFE which covered kissing (no tongues), OWO and reverse oral.

The Story:

I remember a Maxim article once about a trope of burlesque dancers at a slumber party and one of them comments that she loves anal and the prettiest blonde girl in the group says that's dirty and the girl who like anal retorts not for her to be uptight since she probably thinks they (men) don't fart or smell. Although I don't mind, like the blonde girl in the story, Billie likes you to be clean before you start. No biggie for me, I am showering before since some of the showers in the parlours don't work, but being clean is a must. (Billie was wiping me down on the bed though I had a shower) A little awkward in the first meeting I have to admit but, although she says she doesn't work out, she is really pretty. In two minds about Billie, I found Rainbow in Alica's more encouraging in the bedroom since it was an oddly average service (massage, kissing, oral, girl on top) but she is quite a looker. Maybe another visit is required.
