The Premises:

A basic flat in a 60s style residence about a 10 minute walk from Welling rail station. It is in a very quiet street and she lets you inside.

The Lady:

As profiled, but the pictures have been airbrushed. She is very petite with large, probably enhanced, breasts with lovely big red areolas. Her breasts felt relatively soft and not hard as is often the case with implants.

The Story:

This was actually a back up punt owing to train problems. I've been to the location before so I knew exactly where to walk. The punt was really good and it commenced with uncovered oral with me standing by the bed. There's now way I could come from that even though it was really enjoyable. We lay on the bed and I feasted on those big red nipples while fondling her small bum. I decided to just enjoy the handjob and it took a while, but I finally got over the line.
