The Premises:

The Lady:

Petite Lady with a gorgeous face and pretty eyes. Definitely very pretty. Soft boobs and great ass. Slight tummy but overall very pretty and elegant girl. She do have smoker breathe, not unbearable but you can smell it. Look the same as the photos online but slightly aged. She look 1.5 or 2 years older. Her english was ok but she struggled to understand me enough to hold conversation.

The Story:

The worst punt I experienced. From communication with the agency to the experience with the lady.

Communication was going well when I was making the booking. However there are some confusion regarding who will order the taxi for the lady. When approached to double check, the agent began to reply rudely when all I asked was to confirm if I am the one ordering the ride and if the lady is ready. I overlooked it since it is not a big deal for me.

Aldari came with the outfit as requested and looked great. But she seem uninterested from the beginning. Session didn't begin until 10 mins passed since she came in. When she begin, it is very mechanical and she generally avoid giving me deep kiss. After a slight kissing session, she begin to reach down to my private area. She started giving me OWC. I was shocked and ask for OWO since it advertised as such. She insist on OWC. I felt like she falsely advertised because I specifically picked her since she offered OWO online. But I didn't push it since I don't think it is ok to ask the lady to do something she is not comfortable with. However, to her credit, her OWC is indeed great with a lot of tongue movement but no attention to ball/shaft. She respond to my request to go slow and deep. We finally moved on to sex, started with missionary. Her p**** is wet and tight. The view of doing her with her moaning face is really out of this world. We swap position to riding and her skill is great. We then move on to doggy. She told me than it is too painful and wanted to finish me off with OWC. I told her I am almost there and she let me do her missionary. I came in the bag and lie beside her. Attempted to cuddle but she is obviously not interested

She then informed me that the session is over and she will take a shower which is a shock to me. I am used to two times limit within an hour session. She then asked me to order an uber home. The whole session end 40 mins including paperwork and her post sex shower. She is in a rush to get this done and it is so mechanical. There is no attempt to connect or make it a great experience.

I feedback to the agency immediately regarding her OWC and that she finished the session with one time and 20 mins left on the clock. The agent replied is really bad. She told me things such as :

- Less then 20 % of ladies do it twice in one hr (6/6 of my previous punt all do it twice)
- They can't keep asking them every day about their services (Fair Point but at least offer to check what happened)
- That I pick on the agent (I merely communicated the situation and asked to check if there is anything the agency can do)

All I expected was an attempt to make things right and apology for her false OWO advertisement and not informing me the one time limit. But instead the agent double down and showed really bad attitude in communicating with me. I been a customer with babylon and use their services at least 6 times over the past 6 months. I always value their fast response and never experience anything like this before.

The agent then update that the Lady doesn't do OWO on me particularly because of my smell. This claim confused me even more. All the ladies I seen before never mentioned anything about the smell and I literally shower before she came. She already have the condom ready before she even go down to my private area hence I am confused how did she detect any smell. Would also appreciate she tell me that face to face. Overall just felt like excuses.

Summary : Pretty lady with good skills. High price point. Selective to who she provide full service to. Will find excuse to justify the bad service. Really bad communication with the agency (1st time I experienced this). My advice is it is not worth the hassle for such high price point. This experience help me make the decision to stop using this agency from now on. They can survive without me.

Wanted to share my experience so the rest of the punter don't experience the same.
