The Premises:

Linda's flat is about a five minute walk from a tube station on the northern section of the Bakerloo Line and not too far from central London. You will receive directions as to how to find it when you arrive at the station. It's a fairly busy area, I felt perfectly safe there and it's most unlikely anyone would know why you were there. There is parking but probably restricted, I used the tube.

It's her home, comfortably furnished, clean and tidy but with more than a few extra items you'd not normally find in your sitting room!

The Lady:

Linda is very attractive and smart in both senses of the word. She has a lively mind and great personality though that's probably not why you are visiting her! We'd exchanged quite a few emails, I was made welcome and felt relaxed in her company.

The Story:

Unfortunately, I'd chosen one of the hottest days of the year for our meeting but it could not be changed as I'd travelled quite a long way. However, there were fans, the apartment was kept reasonably cool and everything went ahead as planned. I'm going into no further detail except to say that Linda is a very experienced and skilled partner in crime and I intend to see her again and when practical.

I highly recommend her for a civilised, kinky session that she will tailor to your requirements.
