The Premises:

Isadora has a flat in central Milton Keynes. The block is 1970s, but her flat is very modern, smart, and bright. The shower in her bathroom is over the bath. The two of us fitted in it very nicely to share a sensuous shower! Her bedroom faces southwest, which can get a bit warm on a sunny afternoon. An electric fan would be a good addition.

My one real concern is the bed, which wobbles and is very squeaky! However, Isadora says that on about 15 October she plans to move to a different flat. I hope that the bed in that flat is more solid!

Parking is very easy. Isadora's block is a couple of minutes' walk from Sainsbury's supermarket in Witan Gate, which has an underground car park. A sign says the car park is open every day until 11 pm. The flat to which she plans to move on 15 October is in the block next door to where she is currently living. Hence, what I have written about location and parking will remain almost the same.

Isadora was previously in Northampton, and then spent a week in Bedford. We met for the first two times in Northampton; and had our third meeting in Milton Keynes.

The Lady:

Isadora is a white girl from Brazil. She exactly matches the photos with which she advertises online. As far as I can tell, everything Isadora advertises about herself online is true. The only feature that her photos fail to make clear is her height. She is a magnificent 5'10" tall, plus high heels!

Isadora looks young. She tells me that she is 24; and I have no reason to doubt her. She has a beautiful face, which frequently lights up with a big, sexy smile. She is slim and willowy; with a firm, flat tummy; long, slim legs; small, pink, dainty nipples; and small, very elegant hands. Her pale complexion; pert, petite bum; and slender hips and thighs, contrast with those of every Brazilian girl whom I have met before. Her hair is very long, straight, thick, and well-groomed. I think its natural colour is honey-blonde or pale brunette. She has blonde highlights, which suit her beautifully. Isadora makes no secret of having had a few cosmetic treatments. She has breast implants, but the scars are almost invisible.

This is Isadora's first visit to Britain, and she seems to have been here only a few weeks. She is a bright, cheerful, adventurous girl; and seems to be thoroughly enjoying discovering Britain. Her English is not entirely fluent, but is competent enough for meeting clients. And she has the right, confident frame of mind to improve her English as she does so. She speaks English with a somewhat American-Brazilian accent; different from all of the other Brazilian SW's I have met. At first, I was not sure whether I liked her accent. But the more I meet her and chat with her, the more I enjoy the sound of Isadora's voice.

If you are short, please do not let Isadora's height deter you from meeting Isadora. She is delightfully approachable. And you'll be spending most of your time together horizontal!

In three successive meetings, I have had the honour of exploring much of Isadora's beautiful body in very pleasurable detail. I have not found any tattoos or piercings on her - not that I object to either on a woman. I imagine that her ears are pierced. However, hidden under that glorious, blonde mane or hers, her ears are the one part of her body that I have not really seen!

In our first two meetings, my foremost thoughts were Isadora's beauty, and what good sex we were enjoying together. But with our third meeting, I have enjoyed more of her conversation; her likes; and her character. She is in all respects a lovely girl, whom I want to continue to meet. The more time I spend with her, the more I feel able to recommend her as an all-round companion, as well as someone to share good sex with.

The Story:

This is a composite of my three meetings with Isadora. We met in Northampton on 23 and 25 September; and in Milton Keynes on 6 October. I booked with her via WhatsApp. She starts work around lunch time, and I think she works late, or at least stays up late. I have always managed to make a same day booking with Isadora. I message her around breakfast time; she replies mid- to late morning, and I book her for a one-hour meeting that starts about 2 pm.

For our first two meetings, Isadora wore a matching black lacy bra and knickers, covered by a short, black satin wrap. For our third meeting, she wore a short, white item that was a sort of combined bra and short, see-through negligée, with matching white knickers visible underneath. She wears combinations that leave her long, slender legs bare. She looks amazing every time!

Each time I visit Isadora, she greets me with a warm embrace, and a succession of enthusiastic French kisses. I then slip out of her long, slender arms just long enough to pay her fee, and tell her which services I would like. I always pay cash. However, Isadora also accepts bank transfer, or cryptocurrency.

Before we met for the first time, Isadora sent me a full list of her fees and extras:

15 mins £80

30 mins £90

1 hour £130

French kisses £20

Shower together £20

OWO £30

"Cum in body" (I think that should say "on" rather than "in") £20

"Cum in face" (I guess that also means "on" rather than "in") £50

Cum in mouth £80

Anal sex £100

Most of her extras are very competitive in the current market. The exceptions are £80 for CIM and £100 for anal, which are higher than many other SWs charge. But, for me, Isadora is amazingly beautiful, and worth the extra. Her bum is the right one for me, even at £100 a time! I always meet her for an hour, and add French kisses and OWO. With each successive visit, I have added something else from her menu. And I haven't finished the menu yet!

I am over six feet tall. I love the rare delight of embracing a woman who, with her heels on, has her beautiful eyes and lips level with mine. So I enjoy remaining standing; embracing, caressing, and kissing Isadora; before we get down to business. She is always well made-up, but she places no limits on the number and depth of French kisses. SWs who restrict kisses, in order to keep their make-up perfect, would do well to learn from Isadora!

I then undress Isadora, and take her to bed. I enjoy her hand and oral technique. She doesn't deep-throat, which is fine by me, as the tip is a man's most sensitive part. On our first meeting, we followed oral sex with missionary. Isadora's stock of condoms includes a large size, which is a perfect fit for my seven inches. Gazing at her beautiful face as I penetrated her gave me a lovely climax. After that, I lay beside her, and returned the favour by frigging her to a climax.

On our second meeting, Isadora introduced me to anal sex, which she loves. I had never had it before, and I am delighted that my first time was with her. Because she is beautiful; because her neat little bum is so inviting; and because she is so enthusiastic for anal sex. Isadora always starts by lying sideways. She explains that this helps her anus to relax as I start to penetrate her. At first, her anus was tight, so I was very gentle. But I slowly eased into her as she relaxed, and the lube spread inside her. But soon, she was able to take all of my seven inches in her bum, and then I quickened the pace. She seemed to really love it! I used one arm on Isadora's chest to her long, slender back against my chest. Being young and flexible, she is able to turn her head far enough for us to French kiss when I am behind her. I climaxed quite hard in her anus.

On our third meeting, I added shower together. Most SW's like their clients to shower on arrival. We might as well do it together! Isadora swept up her mane of long, thick hair, and secured it in a big hair-clip. Being so tall, she finds it easy to keep her hair high enough to be out of the way of the shower spray. I loved soaping her smooth, beautiful body with shower gel. Isadora mostly concentrated on soaping my dick, which got things started very nicely.

We got dry, and moved to her bedroom. After our usual oral sex, we started anal sex, but this time I wasn't on top form. So, after her anus had relaxed enough, we changed to doggy position, but I still didn't manage to cum. After a rest, we tried missionary. I got an erection again, but still failed to cum. I might have been a bit tired, but I think also that the wobbles and squeaks of the bed may have distracted me. Also, the mattress seemed softer than the one she had in Northampton.

Isadora, bless her, was most concerned that I didn't cum. Was anything wrong? But a gentleman loves to reassure a lady. With most of the SW's whom I have met, I have failed to cum at all, even if I have met them a few times, and am very fond of them. But with Isadora, I have cum two times out of three. I reassured her that this makes her the most successful SW I have yet met!

Being unable to cum left me with more time to chat with Isadora and get to know her better. To her, old England is all new! The history of Northampton and Bedford; the modernity and space of Milton Keynes; the way the British brew tea; our culture. She even claims to like our weather! Brazil can get too hot for her.

Isadora says her plan is to stay in Britain until December. How late in December, I have yet to ask her, but I expect she will want to be home by Christmas. I haven't yet asked her whether she plans to stay in Milton Keynes until December. Given her curiosity for all things British, I would expect her to tour to other places. So if you want to meet her in MK, I recommend booking her as soon as you can.

My plan is to continue meeting Isadora for as long as she remains within range of my home! I will make my next booking after she moves to the flat in the next block that she told me about. That means we will meet next after 15 October. I hope that the bed in that flat is more solid than the one in her current flat! But if not, no matter, as the next item on her menu that I want to experience is the gentle art of cum in mouth.

I feel fortunate to have formed ongoing client relationships with a number of SWs. Each girl is different, and fills a different and complimentary niche in my punting life. Isadora is right up there with the best of them, and I feel fortunate to have met her so early in her stay in Britain. She is such bright, happy, refreshing company. She is "gay" in the original sense of the word, meaning full of gaiety. (Sexually, she is straight.)

Whether Isadora will suit you as well as she suits me, there is only one reliable way to find out. Meet her, and enjoy her company, as soon as you can!
