The Lady:

Eva was fairly attractive, with blonde hair and a nice body, but she wasn't the girl that I ordered! Using a high-class site, I expected a much higher class of girl and service, but alas, dissatisfaction prevailed.

The Story:

Eva turned up at my expensive Piccadilly hotel very promptly, at the time requested. When I opened the door to my room, she stood there and looked like an escort!, discretion assured yes, but how obvious.

We drank a glass of Dom Perignon and I tried to strike conversation with her, but she was keen to crack on. I asked her if she was the Eva that I ordered and she said yes, and I began to doubt myself, thinking my memory had gone. Afterwards, checking the site, I realised that it definitely wasn't my Eva.

She was very domineering and did all the work, no kissing allowed (only kisses people she is in love with!) Didn't allow me to join in. My sack was empty after 30 minutes of constant fucking, and before I realised she was dressed and out the door.

Minutes later I checked the clock, and only 40 minutes had elapsed since she arrived, although I had paid for a full hour. Upon reflection it was obvious she just wanted to empty me and get on her way as soon as possible. Good job the ?350 I gave her was earned so easily, otherwise I would have been choked. I went out that night and pulled and got laid for the price of a bottle of Moet and 3 vodka redbulls, now theres a better deal.

I'm afraid I feel cheated by this agency and certainly didn't get what I paid for.
