The Lady:

Website extremely accurate. Probably the biggest breasts of the industry, and they are natural! Hair blonde but not natural.

The Story:

I was quite surprised not to see any kind of report on Courtney, as I believe she is a quite requested escort. But I have read some good report about the agency on Juliette, so I decided to give it a try. I have never done a report before, but Courtney was so nice with me that I promised her I will do one to convey my satisfaction and give her justice.

If you are a titman, you'll be more than satisfied. Her assets are simply amazing, and even probably too big after all. But quite surprisingly, it is not the thing I will remember most, although it was my original desire to touch them.

I will not go into much detail, as I never request something special, but apart from the fact that Courtney likes her job, she is very cute, quite, sweet, and not rushing. She is fresh and very natural, not the kind of sophisticated girl that simulates a fake climax that you meet in some cases. If you treat her well, you will receive as much as you give her. Because she has such an exiting figure, men do not give her justice in the real life, but she is a real lady.

I definitely recommend her, as she is probably one of the best punt I ever had in London since I arrived one year ago.
