The Premises:

Held in a night club under some arches in Central London. Felt safe during day as this is near to a popular tourist area. Not sure about at night.

The Lady:

As this was a party there were a few ladies there. I don't wish to be unkind, but even in the very dark it was clear that these were not beauties. A 'working' lady either has to be pretty, have a sexy body or a great personality to be considered 'attractive' in this line of work. It was impossible in the circumstances to judge the last criteria, they all failed the other two by miles. If I had been locked away for 3 months - well may be, but pay ?100 - you jest...

The Story:

The other problem was the shortage of ladies and excess of men. It was advertised as 10 ladies, however I only saw 4, another guy said 5. But there must have been around 50 blokes, mostly stark naked, with many frantically masturbating and very dark, so who knows.

It was not what I consider ?good & sexy party fun?. Even if you had the stomach for watching the ?more available than attractive? girls in action, it was so dark you couldn?t see what the hell was happening.

Conclusion: total waste of my time and money.

Not all parties are like this. I have been to many good parties. They tend to cost between ?250 and ?300, but I wanted to try out a cheapy. How can they do it so cheaply? Now some cheaper parties take photographs, so they make money from selling the porn shots, I have never been to these and can?t say how good or bad they are because I don?t want my photograph taken ? who would!!! Others, such as this one, have loads of blokes and unattractive ladies.

There is little chance of ?swinging? couples going to either of these parties due to the extreme excess of men. The ?escort? parties I have been to have been a great sexual experience, with a good ratio and sometimes have swinging couples attend as well, and compared to this are worth every penny.
