The Premises:

This is a parlour on a high street. But it's not immediately obvious as the only thing on the white painted window is a 65. This place is fairly small, and neither luxurious nor shabby. There are two massage rooms side by side, so don't go if you might be concerned by extraneous noises from next door. I have been to better looking places, but each time I have been to 65 I've received a very good service.

The Lady:

There was a choice of two girls - both were pretty, but Sophie had the edge. Sophie is Oriental. About 5 feet 3, long black hair, small breasts, very slim, lovely skin colour, and a neatly trimmed bush.

The Story:

Sophie was the first of the two girls to appear. She was very friendly and smiley. When she went back next door, there was a lot of giggling which I wasn't quite sure what to make of. But after I chose her, and she came back in, she was still giggling - which was all very charming. However, underneath the smiles, there was a bit of a sexual dynamo. The prices here are pretty standard. I paid ?50 for sex. Sex and Oral is ?60. You pay for the service rather than time here. When she got back to the room properly, she was keen to get down to the action. She didn't offer a massage, but was very playful. One thing she did that has never happened to me before in a parlour was to say turn over "so I can see the size of your cock." This was to gauge which type of condom to use. I didn't see which one she picked, but it would have been the average one as I am the average 6 inches.

Sophie was keen to kiss, and rub my cock at the same time. I alternated the kissing, and sucking her breasts. It all got very heated in a short time, as she was certainly one to keep grabbing me in the nicest possible way. Sophie then put the condom on, and started to ride on top of me. This was a lovely sight. After a little while she suggested we change positions, so I took her from behind. In the rooms at 65, there is a very large mirror, so you get a good view of the action taking place. After a while of me pushing in and out, Sophie once again took the initiative, and changed position slightly by leaning back on to me, and pushing up and down. I haven't done quite this position before, and it was quite delightful. Also it worked for Sophie as she went a lot quieter, and in the mirror I could see her eyebrows knitting together, which is normally a pre orgasm sign in women.

After a little while, my orgasm came, which was a good intense one. We kissed and talked a little more, and I left 65 feeling happy and contented.
