The Premises:

Nice hotel room - mine!

The Lady:

Nadia is a very pretty lady from the back. Flawless skin. From the front she has some bad scars (one a stab wound and some general scarring from a car accident according to her). Shame since it ruins a nice effect.

The Story:

Excellent service - bit not a very reliable lady. I called her (and it is very difficult to get a reply) many times, finally got an answer and she said I was near her place so she would be round in between 45 minutes and 1 hour. 2 and half hours later she finally showed up. I was not impressed.

In spite of this we had a good time she gives great head, and I get the impression she has few barriers.

I am afraid I probably won't see her again because I need someone to be more reliable
