The Premises:

A small self contained ground floor flat at the rear of some shops accessed via a small cul-de-sac off a residential street. Plenty of kerbside parking. The main road which leads to the area in which the premises are situated are by virtue of local one way systems quite difficult to access. The best approaches are via Wick Road or New Brislington Bridge. Nadia will give detailed directions if you phone her just prior to your expected time of arrival. The flat is also her home. The bed is a nice firm bed ideal for the type of deeply satisfying services that Nadia gives.

The Lady:

A seductive petite young woman, mid twenties, with shoulder length dark brown hair and eyes. Her small but well formed breasts are blessed with long sensitive nipples, perfect for gently tweaking and nibbling. She has a slender waist, flat belly and is size 8/10. On this, my second visit to her, she wore a very becoming see through red basque, black g-string and black net stockings. The removal of her g-string and parting of her thighs revealed her neat and shaven genitalia which were as tasty and responsive as any woman I have spent time with. She is an intelligent and articulate girl, who clearly derives a lot of satisfaction from pleasing her clients, and in the process becomes very aroused. Her passionate nature, no doubt attributable to her mixed Sicilian and Welsh origins, combined with her appearance and the Welsh twang in her voice make her an altogether very foxy lady.

The Story:

Having to organise my punting in a somewhat opportunistic way, I have from time to time treated myself to two punts in consecutive days, often following a few weeks of celibacy. This was one of those weekends. Because of my antique vintage, it opens up the possibility of an inappropriate response on my part! On the previous morning, Saturday, I had called at Park House in Bedminster to visit my long standing favourite, Tanya, who, over a period of 4 years and 70 punts, has never failed to provide perfectly for my sexual needs. This means, in my case, among other things, concluding with a satisfying shag of several minutes duration. On this particular occasion Tanya was away on holiday. Instead I was greeted by a 22 year old olive skinned babe who works under the name Katie. I couldn't resist this tasty treat, and was duly provided with a very titillating 30 minutes. Not having ejaculated since my first visit to Nadia 20 days earlier, the only setback to this delightful 'curtain raiser' was its conclusion. The release of a torrent of my sperm as she impaled herself upon my overexcited willy in cowgirl fashion.

Despite the ministrations of the delightful Katie, the moment that I was welcomed into Nadia's bedroom I was embraced and kissed with such passion, that it left me in no doubt that this was to be the real banquet, and that Katie had just been an appetiser. Hardly a moment was wasted as I removed my clothes, and we fell on to the bed, locked in an embrace. We were like a couple of long lost lovers who had just been reunited. We chatted, kissed and cuddled for a long time. Apart from being irresistably sexy, Nadia is so interesting and affectionate. I had laid on top of her for some time, with our tongues intermittently exploring each other as we kissed and hugged, before she invited me to put my tongue to work on other parts of her body. The removal of her basque and g-string enabled me to switch my attention, at first, to her succulent nipples and then on down to suck, lick and tease what lay between her widely parted thighs. We grasped each others hands tightly as her mounting excitement and flowing juices indicated the onset of her orgasm. For the second successive day I enjoyed the exhilarating sight of a beautiful young woman arching her back in the air and thrusting her pelvis in my face as she climaxed in response to the probings of my tongue. At no time is woman more beautiful than when she is endowed with her post orgasmic flush. After sharing the relish of her afterglow with some more kisses and cuddles she set to work on me. She started by treating me to several blissful minutes of OWO, which I was able to relish, thanks to the exertions of Katie the pervious day. Nadia applied the rubber at just the right moment, with my cock perfectly primed and ready for action. She turned over, splayed her thighs and guided me into her so that we could fuck in tne missionary position. This wonderful finale lasted for a full five minutes, which progressed, in it's latter stages, from slapping bellies, to an ecstatic climactic embrace in which our bodies were fully interlocked at both ends. It was absolutely wonderful. Nadia is one of those particularly gifted working girls who has the ability to make you feel, during the time that you are with her, that you are the only man in her life.

In conclusion I would like to thank those several punters, whose helpful and illuminating reports guided me to her, to Galahad for making it possible, and above all Nadia herself, who is a delightful human being. My apologies to Nadia for taking so long to file this report. It was due to an unfortunate combination of circumstances, including problems with my PC, a full Punternet in tray, and limited oppurtunities on my part to write this report. Ill health has prevented me from a making any subsequent visits, but prospects of a return within the next few weeks are now very good. I cannot wait to see her again, and again.....and again. etc.
