The Premises:

Melanie lives in a first floor apartment of a large Georgian terraced residential block of flats. There is parking nearby and residents parking only after 10pm. The road is off two busy areas, and between South Kensington Underground & Gloucester Road stations. The block is controlled by an entry system and although there were many people about, no one pays you any attention. I was a tad early for our appointment, so when I rang the door bell to her flat, she asked me to wait a while. I remained on the doorstep but still felt quite safe and secure. A busy tourist area but I still was not noticed. On entering the flat, Melanie showed me straight into the bedroom which was tastefully decorated and cosy. There is a slightly bigger than single bed in the middle of the room. On glancing at the lounge/kitchenette on the way in, I saw that Melanie is not the most tidiest of people, with empty dishes and cups lain strewn about. On using the bathroom which was tucked away, I found it to be functional and adequate. There is an upstairs, but I never got that far and I believe she might share with another girl. Overall I felt safe.

The Lady:

The photo on the website is Melanie, a Latvian beauty. However the agency conveniently forgot to tell me that she has had her hair done. She now supports light coloured hair extensions down to the middle of her back which are pleated into her head in tiny platts. She stated that she will have the photos on the web altered in about a week and apologised for the agency having not told me. She has brown eyes and stands at 172cm (That's 5'8" tall). She is 19 years old and has been with the agency some three months although she is also with "All Stars" agency and "www.divaescorts.com". She has a pierced belly button and three-diamond shaped tattoo on her ankle. She has a deep appendix scar too. She has beautiful soft lips and a lovely completely shaved pussy which exposes her tight clit and suckable pussy lips. But the 'piece de resistance' is her breasts. They are fantastic. She is a natural 34DD with largish (bigger than a 50p) brown nipples. The tips and areole are one and beg to be sucked. Her nipples point out and when she is sitting up they stand out on their own. She has a 34DD-30-36 inch figure which is not wafer thin or lithe but wholesome and round. Her figure is shapely and all woman. It was for the fact of her magnificent orbs that I decided to visit and although slightly disappointed by the hair extensions, decided to stay for those tits. She was wearing a tiny pink thong and deep cleavage pink bra when she answered the door. She has an all over tan (from the sunbeds she admitted) with a hint of triangle white across her buttocks. She was wearing low heeled stilettoes. She is studying English but starts psychology when she returns home in September.

The Story:

I was shown into the bedroom and we sat on the bed whilst the paper work was sorted. She disappeared to make that all important call to the agency that I had arrived and on returning set about me with gusto. Her kisses were invigorating as she assaulted my senses with her probing tongue. This girl can kiss. She stood up and held me close, pushing her breasts into me as she continued to tongue massage mine. She removed her bra and her magnificent orbs sprang free. I had to lick, taste and suck on every inch of them. She helped me out of my clothes and soon had Mr Woody out rubbing him vigorously in her palms. At first I was wondering when she would pop him into her mouth, but she did not. I was unsure whether OWO was on the agenda. She stopped, leaned back and lay on the bed and I soon followed. She continued to kiss me all over but played with my cock, rubbing the tip over her nipples. I lay back and she climbed on top. She worked her way down my body, paying attention to my nipples and body before stopping at my balls. Then with total eye contact she slowly descended onto my eagerly awaiting member. She had been teasing me. Her OWO was deep and she kept running her tongue around the sensitive edge. I stopped her and turned her round so I could plunge into the deep mists of her hole. Her moaning and twitching showed me she was enjoying the attention but she pulled me away saying that she didn't want to lose control but perhaps later. She set about OWO again and more kisses which slid into 69. Then it was time for Mr Woody's jacket which she asked me to put on. She climbed on board and rode me cow girl. This turned into mish and developed with her knees around my arms as I penetrated deeply. She turned over and we carried on doggie with me standing on the edge of the bed. Seeing her round bottom pushing back against me, pushed me over the edge. We lay down exasperated. We chatted and I had to ask for a tissue to clean up. We continued kissing and she started licking me all over. She reached down and slowly started stroking the length of me bringing me back. She leaned down and plunged the shaft of my cock into her mouth. After a few minutes she came back up for air and we swapped around. I had decided that now was her turn. I buried my tongue into her pussy and worked on her clit for ages. Her juices covered my chin and she moaned and climaxed noisily and with much twitching of her legs. I couldn't go near her clit again with even the tip of my tongue. Although I was rock hard, there was no seconds. This was a bit disappointing. We sat and chatted and every now and then she would kiss me hard on my mouth or I would suck her nipples and lick the underside of her breasts. I eventually dressed and she saw me to the door still hanging and kissing me as we went. I finally left feeling satisfied yet disappointed that I had not been allowed a second pop. Melanie is a delight and her conversation never stopped nor did it seem dull. She has a delightful sense of humour and is playful and tender. She did ask me during the encounter if she could take a call on her mobile, but she was extremely quick and wasted no time. This was an eventful encounter which I would repeat. There were a few down sides (keeping me outside; not putting on the condom or helping me clean up after; taking mobile calls during the visit; no round two), but over all I found Melanie a delight. She has reviews on another site but none on PunterNet, which surprises me. I recommend this sexy girl with a precursor to treat her well.
