The Story:

This was my second meeting with Lara, the first being at a hotel in Southampton but that's another story. I had booked this appointment with Lara a couple of weeks in advance and had enquired if she would be able to visit me at my home, fortunately I live within Lara's traveling range.

Lara called me a couple of hours before the appointment to confirm everything was okay. On her arrival I poured her a glass of wine, we sat down in the sitting room to give Lara a chance to unwind from her journey. She looked wonderful, dressed exactly as requested. We talked for about twenty minutes before I suggested moving upstairs to the bedroom. We stripped off and fell onto the bed, I couldn't resist going straight to work with my tongue for a while, she then did the same for me, her technique is out of this world, died and gone to heaven is a fair description. We then went for a condom and some serious fucking in several positions. After a rest we began the whole wonderful process again to another satisfactory completion.

After we recovered we went back downstairs for dinner, my culinary skills are just about passable, no complaints from Lara anyway. After dinner we sat and chatted for a while before going for another round of fun and games in the bedroom, brilliant it was too but as always time runs out fast when you're enjoying yourself.

Lara's really great fun to be with and is not only a lovely girl but a hell of a lot naughtier than she looks. She's definitely in my top three list!
