The Premises:

My hotel room.

The Lady:

Her stats as outlined by the agency are within reason but I cannot agree with their synopsis - at best she is of average appearance and apart from her medium cleavage she carries very little sex appeal. Her dress sense was not a turn on and her breath was less than favourable. I rather suspect she had rushed her presentation and in doing so did not pay sufficient attention to personal detail.

The Story:

Because of her breath I was forced to extend the introductory conversation so as I could get used to being close up to her and this was hard work, she not being the best of conversationalists. However, most parts of her performance were ok and I went on to have an acceptable finish.

Overall, when compared with other CC girls that I have seen she is in a lower league - I feel the agency needs to remind her that 'first impressions last'.
