The Premises:

Other establishments should take a leaf from Debbies book. The website description of the girls is accurate, the timetable well presented and the price structure very clear. No wonder she has so many regulars. A clean basement flat on the main road near Anerley station. Plenty of free parking round the back. Always a friendly welcome with the offer of a drink.

The Lady:

Sasha is a petite black girl with a very nice figure and long dreadlocks. Her size and pretty little face make her look younger than she is according to the website.

The Story:

Have visited Debbies several times but this was my first time with Sasha. She lives up to the reputation of this establishment by offering all the regular services with a smile and enthusiasm. When we got into the shower she took off her high heels and this reduced her height to the perfect level for the old man to get a good wash between her pert tits. In the bedroom she let me eat her out for ages which was delightful before we got stuck into the main action. Several positions later we finished in doggie. I didn't have to wait to be seen but wouldn't have minded as the beautiful Arrena was maid for the day. That bought back happy memories of my previous visit.
