The Premises:

Scorpio is located in Albion Road, which is off Easter Road, almost opposite the football ground. It is safe enough to park your car there, but avoid the place on match days.

The Lady:

There was only one girl available ? Jessica, who is 5'8 with reddish hair and a slim but busty figure. She showed me to the room. She has a reasonably pretty face, with a slight squint. She has good legs and a nice firm bum. Other girls on were Trisha ? who is 54 and blonde, but has her devoted followers.

The Story:

I went there at 3.30pm, which is usually a quiet time. However, the place was busy and Ian, the owner, would only let me book 45 minutes instead of my usual hour. Added to that there were only four girls working rather than the usual six or seven. I showered quickly and took my place in the lounge. Jessica has a good personality and is very easy to chat to and get on with. She stripped off and gave me a massage with oil, taking plenty of time and always flirting with my arse and balls. I asked for a bit of everything and turned over to suck her tits. She allows kissing, with no tongues, and nibbled away at my neck and ears.

She put a condom on for oral which was a disappointment as some other reports had indicated that she sucked bareback. She licked my balls and inner thighs, then took me in her mouth. Her technique was OK, but with a condom on there was not a lot of feeling. I then began to finger her pussy, which was wet with lube and felt great. I went down on her and began to give her clit a good probing, whilst I stuck two fingers up her fanny. She was moaning a little and tweaking her nips, but is a good actress. I then got her to turn over and took her doggy style. I shot my wad pretty quickly. Next time I'll save a sauna visit for when I've had a few drinks as I can last forever, and I am less inhibited in what I ask the girl to do.

Jessica was OK, but I was last punter before her shift ended and she was keen to get home I think. She says she is leaving the sauna game in the next two weeks and whilst she was good at her job, she didn't make me feel special. I could have done with an hour, as 45 minutes always makes me feel rushed and I can't fully relax.
