The Lady:

A very attractive lady with a wonderful smile and soft brown skin. This lady has been blessed with the most sumptuous breasts and bottom.

Pru's body is voluptuous and to be quite honest I was not prepared for how good she looked when we met. It is an image of beauty I will carry with me for a long time.

The Story:

I am a disabled gentleman who uses a wheelchair and it was my first time with an escort. Before we had met, Pru had answered all my questions with respect and thoughtfulness.

When we were in the hotel room, Pru immediately put me at my ease she is a good conversationalist and an attentive listener which is exactly what is required when you are a nervous first timer.

Pru offered to help me undress which was wonderful because I have physical restrictions and would not be able to do this myself. The fact that she carried out these duties and tasks without making a fuss shows what a caring lady Pru is.

The actual pleasure I got from being released from the restrictive movement that clothes give me was amazing.

Pru is very open minded and takes everything in her stride and is willing to discuss most scenarios. Pru is also very good at discovering other often neglected parts of the body which one can gain pleasure from this is especially good if you have a physical disability. She is an excellent kisser and gives wonderful cuddles and strokes.

I strongly urge anybody who is considering using the services of an Escort to use Pru and that includes people with disabilities, she has the fingers of Paul Daniels (a magician) her massages and back rubs are sublime the best I have ever received especially if you having aching muscles and joints. When you are with Pru you can sense from her that your own enjoyment is paramount.

As far as disabled people and Escorts go I believe Pru is a pioneer in this field and you should not be afraid to contact her. She is totally trustworthy and very discreet.

I only wish more escorts were more were as responsive as Pru when it comes to actually advertising what services they would offer a disabled person or how they would cope with the situation. To me the experience was a dream come true and to top it all Pru is a lovely person.
