The Story:

Hate these type of rip off places where you have to pay up front before you see the girls. There were five on, so I thought at least one of them would be a looker. Paid up twenty quid and my heart sank as they all turned out to be mingers. Either fat or past it. Chose Denise as she looked the best, but the prospect of paying up more for something that wasn't going to be great (as by now her personality wasn't winning me over). Made my excuses and left. Is it me or has the quality of women in Edinburgh fallen?
