The Story:

Spent a lot of time e mailing each other, which was fine. had a few surprises in as much she charges rather a lot for travelling and the first 30 minutes amelia want to get to know you is also charged. Therefore you can end up paying almost as much for travel and for her company. We eventually agreed on terms and she arrived on time. has a little problem with parking at my place and ran (not literally) into a neighbour. Not a good start. Still after a glass of wine and small talk things began to get better. be warned guys, she is extremely slim. She enjoys kissing and cuddling and everything follows from that. Although with all the problem with parking I did somewhat underperform and I had the suggestion that I needed viagra. (Thought that a bit of a cheek) However the evening was enjoyable and I would recommend Amilea providing you are happy with slim girls and someone who is.....different. Wouldn't book again tho, sorry Amelia
