The Premises:

Sandys II most know exactly what it looks like but if in doubt visit the site and take the tour.

The Lady:

Morgan is slim and athletic with dark hair she has recently had a boob job done and now has bumps rather than mountains. They make her feel happy and this is how it should be. As for me I liked her before and I still like her now.

The Story:

Morgan is very energetic in the room and offers you a full experience (well that is what she gave me) no doubt if you want it different all you have to do is ask. I enjoyed the raunchy and high energy and also appreciated her enjoyment of my ministrations. All in all this was better than my first visit and I get the impression the more you see her the more you will get, so roll on the next time

One comment I must make is that often I am unable to make an appointment due to not ever being certain exactly when I will be in the area. Despite my always turning up on spec the staff on reception always make me feel welcome and try their best to fit me in somehow. I appreciate this and therefore in the same spirit accept those times when nothing can be done and I have to leave without seeing anyone. It never puts me off because I know they have tried to help, customer care matters other parlours take note
