The Story:

Arrived at VH without an appointment and was lucky to get Tanya just 30 mins before she had a booking.

As such I had to skip my customary shower which I was a little uncomfortable about, but Tanya said she didn't mind, so it was kecks off in the room and settled down to the usual sequence of events (mind you, it usually follows the same pattern everywhere, so I'm not complaining)

What I will say is that Tanya is very adept at her craft, massage was quite firm, she didn't mind me touching her and the OW was very good as she paid heed to my instructions of what I liked etc.

Eventually we got to the main event, and moved to the leather sofa. The next few minutes were truly mind blowing, and Tanya made me feel 20 years younger with a her enthusiastic participation and gentle kisses. I really did die and go to heaven.

Afterwards, she was good enough to get me a robe so I could then get a shower, and we said our goodbyes.

Throughout, there was no rush, even though she had the imminent booking, and she was really sweet and friendly.

I think she works Thursdays, but the web site has her down as Saturdays, so a phone call first may be necessary.

I for one would like to see her again.
