The Story:

After seeing that Brooklyns had a new website, I was tempted to pay them a visit. The old site was pretty useless and I don't think that any of the girls on there still worked there!

Their new site is much better as you can see the girls and the rooms and is generally more informative. I don't know about you guys but I like to see what I'm getting before I pay a visit to a parlour.

Two girls on today. One was petite and blonde but I forget her name now. Seemed ok if a little non-plussed. Didn't offer any extras.

I opted to see Nikki, the other girl. Late 30-s, petite, long blonde/brown hair, all natural ingredients, no artificial preservatives. Very lively and chatty - she offers quite a wide range of extras going from the website.

The room had the tallest bed I've ever been on, but was a big room with shower, TV etc. Even some mints along with the usual potions & Lotions.

Had a relaxing massage and Nikki could have chatted forever, but suggested that the best way to keep her quiet was for her to do some oral. I was more than happy to oblige her.

Some excellent OWO followed, then some GFE time, a bit of 69 and more OWO. Can you tell what I like? Finished by straddling her chest and her wanking me off over her tits. I think I shot so much that I felt a stone lighter!

You know how some girls just want to clean up as soon as you've spunked on them? Nikki is not like that. She lay there quite happy for a while, playing with 'little spud' and chatting before cleaning herself down. If, like me, you like to see a girl covered in your 'personal moisturiser', you get your money's worth.

Friendly girl, helpful receptionist, clean room, ample parking & front & rear exits. The reception area has photos of the girls where you can see their faces and I can say that there isn't one who I wouldn't consider seeing. Very impressed and would go again.
