The Premises:

The usual high standards and no fuss of Victoria House. Couldn't get the telly to work to watch the Test in the lounge for the few minutes before Melanie appeared.

The Lady:

Melanie lived up to her good reports. Slim, blonde and a part-time fitness instructress, she appeared in a short black tunic concealing lovely underwear and fishnet holdups.

The Story:

She was lovely to chat to, and after discarding the tunic gave me a nice gentle back massage followed by a more meaningful front one. Unhurried OW, including a bit on her knees in front of me. Then it was time for The Chair, which sounds like an instrument of torture but is just the opposite. The Chair is suspended from the ceiling at just the right height for Melanie to sit on it with her heels in stirrups and swing to and fro leaving me with little thrusting to do. Yet another five-star from VH (along with Maria & Jordan). Ask for the room with The Chair, I know I will!
