The Premises:

Split level flat in a quiet street near Baker Street. Safe and reasonably discreet. Flat itself was clean and quiet. Suzanna appears to share this with Mandy from the same agency. Bathroom was clean, a shower and fresh towels were available.

The Lady:

What you see is what you get, the pictures aren't inaccurate. Suzanna a tallish, quite slim, reasonably attractive hungarian girl with a boob-job. She has a nice bum, and slim long legs and seems to take good care of herself.

The Story:

This was a hard one. My first choice girl wasn't available, so I requested Suzanna instead. I arrived slightly late having lost the way a little - my fault.

I was led into a bedroom with a futon height bed, after very brief preliminaries I settled on an hour. I had requested casual dress, but evidently the message hadn't got through and she was wearing one of the outfits from her photos.

She seemed quite surprised when I indicated that she shouldn't undress but sit next to me on the bed. After preliminary snogging, we undressed each other and had sex. After a bit of cleanup she started to suck me - she was quite happy to lick and suck my balls, but her oral technique consisted of taking just the head of my penis into her mouth and using her hand to masturbate me. That said I couldn't fault her for lack of trying. Eventually I decided I wasn't going to come again and took a shower and left slightly early.

She's an attractive girl, and doesn't mind kissing, BBBJ etc, but on the other hand she comes across as quite cool and disinterested, and either her English wasn't good enough or she wasn't chatty enough for those little courtesies that make an appointment special. I didn't feel it was a chemistry thing, more about her approach to her work. Which is fine, but at 200 an hour I can't, in good faith, recommend her.
