The Premises:

Usual place on the corner of an estate in Telford, easy to find with the directions given and easy to remember the way if you've been there before.

The Lady:

As reported previously. For me, she is the perfect example of the attractive housewife next door. Her hair is still blonde. Greeted me at the door with just a black negligee, self supporting fishnet stockings, high heels and nothing else allowing immediate access to those sought after bits.

The Story:

Felt compelled to submit a second report on Helen after reading the previous negative report on her on this site. I have now visited Helen on around six occasions over the last four years and I would have to say that the experience is exceptional. I have always found her to be both passionate and enthusiastic and in between the sexual activity, you are able to have a good chat with her but only if you want to!

On this occasion, not having seen her for about eighteen months, I was buried up to the hilt within five minutes of walking through the door and we had straight forward sex for virtually the whole hour, which was my choice and Helen didn't seem to mind either.I know from previous experience that she is very versatile and will accommodate most requests within reason.

Still very much a must to see.
