The Story:

Writing this basis value for money and for the guys who just want a good blow & shag etc.

Was ensured by the Agency that this girl did everything , owo CIM kissing normal GFE, but NO "A" - fair enough I thought. I personally get into it when a girl kisses you and you can feel her up before you guide her head to the waiting stick below.

She kisses great.....BUT will not let you go down on her (What bollocks) or let you rub her bush. Her oral technique is I would say average, nothing spectacular, in fact she just covers the head with her gob, and uses more tongue than jaw. I was disappointed in fact really f*cked off with this and with her sucking and stopping I thought how the f*ck am I going to shoot in her mouth, I guess this is the way to politely say I don't want to do CIM. The knob below was responding to the boring head being given and went through the soft and hard phase.

Gave up on this and went for a shag, mish and doggy. shot my load and decided there was no point being with a girl that has restrictions and does not fulfil the service promised.

For me this was a crap punt, and for ? 150.00 a working girl should realise she is there to provide what the client wants otherwise get the f*ck out of the business!
