My hotel room.

The Lady:

Her description as outlined on her web page is reasonably accurate but her pics are a little flattering. She was punctual, nicely presented but rather obviously made up. At first I thought she had received an interim boob job but subsequent examination revealed she was well padded up as upstairs she sports little more than two fried eggs but what is there is quite nice and well nipped. Her English is limited.

The Story:

I found her a nice little turn on and not backwards in coming forward. She knows her work and was happy to take the initiative. Her owo was good with all the supporting action as was sex and I went on to finish with cim although I am not certain it all went down.

This girl certainly knows how to take it out of you and I am therefore happy to give her the ok even if she is a little 'programmed'. With this in mind and there being a host of others out there on my wish list I have some doubts about returning.
