The Story:

Well this was a complete disaster! Lalitha (Also known as RADHA on the Cherry Girls site)arrived a few minutes late. She sat down and we had a littls chat and a glass of wine. It was evident that she wasn't keen to move things on so I suggested she might lioke to join me on the bed. Disappeared into the bathroom and came out in a very nice black bra and pants. She did look good. Managed a little kiss and removed her bre, nice firm breasts. So far so good.

Immediately after my undressing she reached for the condom and started a covered BJ. This was NOT what was mentioned on the site, it quite clearly said OWO. It was a little too soon for me, after all we had been chatting for 15 minutes and we had just got onto the bed. I stopped her and tried to touch her legs. Well this was when it all went wrong. She firmly pushed her knees together and it was obvious that she wasn't going there. I tried agaig but same thing happened. I then asked her if she was going to let me do anything and she said NO!!

At this point I just asked her to leave. No point in wasting any more time.She lefty without a word.

I telephoned the agency and explained the situation. This Agency is top class and They kindly sent another lady Cristi free of charge as Lalitha / Radha had left with the cash.Cristi was absolutely superb. Agency Touch of Class were excellent. I note that Lalitha has been deleted.

So guys, steer well clear of this one in whatever name she uses or you will be fleeced.
