The Story:

I had actually planned a one hour with Sophie, but traffic in north London and the M1 meant I got there later than planned and she was already in session. Shown into a small but functional bedroom and offered a drink - I took Orange, and then a parade of lovely young ladies came in to introduce themselves. I decided that as Felicity was off sick and Sophie already in the missionary position that I would see two girls - the first for a fuck and the second for a nice blow job. I chose Tia because what 50 year old guy wouldn't want to fuck her. She started off with some nice covered oral (I prefer it without) and after had some 69 with a nice tasting pussy that just had to be licked. Then she mounted me (seems like she does this all the time) where she had a little ride. I was on the point of coming so I sat up with her still engaged and had a wonderful come. We then chatted about her and her personal life and then off she went and I waited for the next girl to come in - Leanna
