The Premises:

The parlour is clean, tidy and professional, The room was also clean, a new towel was provided on the bed between clients, and the shower was very good, with high quality shower gel, and clean towels.

Honey had a shower after our session, and there was every indication that she had also done so after her previous client.

The Lady:

Previous descriptions of this lady are accurate, there is no question that she is stunning: Long slim limbs and pert breasts topped with lovely nipples begging to be licked and sucked. Honey also has an attractive personality: chatty, bubbly and open. She gave every indication that she enjoys her work, but gave me the same impression as another reviewer - that she would only be working for as long as it took to set her up for another career. As many girls are in that position I make no criticism

The Story:

An enjoyable time with some reservations: I had a good massage, followed by covered O and reverse O. Honey had an orgasm during the reverse. To be able to have sex with a beautiful young girl is fantastic, but despite the reverse O and her orgasm, Honey was surprisingly dry during sex. I also suffered the same fate as another poster in that the condom seemed tight, it may not have been put on me very well by Honey, but I think it affected my performance. In hindsight I should have tried again myself.

In conclusion I will definitely return to the parlour, but will pass on another session with Honey. On this basis I will click yes/no below
