The Premises:

Easy to find flat nr metro station. reasonably ok parking. Bedroom had no carpet, although she said it was her own flat.

The Lady:

Website says she's in her late 30's. Must have had a bad paper round coz she looks more like late 50's/early 60's. Thinning on top a little. But tits very nice (fake and a bit hard though) large nipples. Body in good shape for age, nice legs. Not too many wrinkles, shame about the face. Web pictures must have been taken a good few years ago.

The Story:

A bit surprised when I saw her as I expected someone a bit younger. Unfortunately she had some red marks around her mouth (impertigo?) so a right put off.

She was quite abrupt and felt she wanted to get it over with. After about 30 seconds of oral, she asked if we'd like to get down to business. The marks on her face put me off and I could not get hard!!

Still she put on a condom and sat on top, but there was no life down there as all I could think of is whether I'll get something off this one.

After about 20 mins, I decided to call it a day.

I suppose she did try, but her oral was rubbish and her face put me off, so won't be going back.

As I was leaving, she gave me her own number so next time I could bypass the agency!! As if there'll be a next time!! But Dolly birds should know about this.

This is my first field report as I feel that fellow punters should steer well clear of this one unless you're into granny sex.

Disappointed with website description and feel it was sixty quid down the drain. I know some sites reduce the age by a few years, but more than 20 is frankly ridiculous.
