The Story:

Head Office is without a shadow of a doubt the best parlour I have ever visited and Paula the best receptionist. I have had plenty of punts here on previous occasions, all of which were of the highest standard. Today, however, was to be the exception. I had booked an appointment to see Vikki as her pics on the Website were very nice indeed and in person she was even prettier. Sadly, that was as good as it got. Why? Well I don't want to sound picky but there were a number of things that didn't seem right. I entered the room, took a shower and lay on the bed for way too long. When Vikki finally entered the room she didn't get undressed or speak except when she asked ME to get the talc! A poor massage before I turned over for some hand relief which was performed with zero enthusiasm so do I did it myself. I then asked for OWO which was even worse! Not only that, I can't do that myself! When I asked her where the condom was she said, 'On the floor.' Christ! I had to get off the bed and get it myself!! I had completely lost interest by now so didn't bother trying to have sex with her. I couldn't wait to get out of the place. I felt like a dirty old man who had tricked her into coming in the room with me and then asking her to do disgusting things.

I know that's not the case but that's how I felt.

After this encounter I can only suggest two things. Either Vikki needs to be educated by Lucy & Becky regarding how to interact with a punter and realise that a punter pays good money in return for a good service otherwise they may not return, or maybe Head Office need to realise that Vikki may have been blinded by pound signs and thinks that all she has to do is lie still and let the punter do all the work. I hope it's not the latter. If I return I will choose the girls that I have seen before unless I can be totally convinced that Vikki has changed.

Service Provider's Rebuttal

The establishment writes:

Vikki has been with us at the Head Office a very short time. It is fair to say that Vikki has come under some very heavy and harsh criticism. However, this does not reflect on her personality or character out of the room. She is a fabulous person and is great to work with. She is very attractive especially with her Hollywood looks of Uma Thurman!

When a relatively new girl to the industry joins a new establishment, it does take a little time for them to settle in, and learn the art, skills and etiquettes of what is expected from them. We do advertise all our new girls that join the Head Office, in advance via our website. As an experienced Client will know, it is always a gamble when seeing a new to an establishment Working Girl or a new to the industry Working Girl. This is a double edged reality within the industry.

We do try and take this gamble away from the Client. However, on a few occasions an Establishment may get this wrong. We obviously would have preferred any unsatisfied client to talk to us in person at the time. We are approachable and we do listen! We also try and resolve any issues raised. If it appears inconvenient at the time to talk to us, then we shall make time for you.

We do understand that there is level of anger within these reports which has led to some hideous comments, we feel that these are unfair and just outright wrong! As they cross the line! These are non-constructive and shall be dismissed.

All feedback is vital to us and PunterNet is a fantastic medium. We welcome all constructive criticisms from our clients and deal with issues raised and complaints fairly. Therefore, we feel that these reports will have the impact of making Vikki a superb Working Girl as she does have the potential within her. We do give all our new Working Girls chance to prove themselves and time to adjust when settling in. So just wait and see. Head Office XXX
