The Premises:

See previous reports. Unfortunatly since I did not book an appointment I got the box room, otherwise you can get bigger rooms and the place is very tidy.

The Lady:

The head office has a very good web site with all their ladies listed, it is why I chose to go there. I saw four ladies Becky, Honey, Denise and Melissa who was not working on the day. I can confirm the other three ladies apart from Denise are the ones pictured on the web site, but the lady I met (Denise) was definetly not, I am not saying she was bad looking just that I am disapointed that I did not get what I saw and since I only met her in the room decided to go ahead with the punt anyway.

The Story:

When I arrived I was told that only one lady was available and that was Denise, and as I stated in her description above I had already seen the pictures on the web so decided to go ahead with the punt without actually seeing her. This was my mistake, had I seen her, I may have opted to wait for one of the other two to become free.

The pictures on the web will give any man a whip lash if she walked past them on the street, the one I met would hardly get noticed. However by now the punt had started to I decided to give her a chance. In the end it turned out to be a very un-impressive experience and considering I had made journey of 50 miles I felt let down. She was not very interested and made no eye contact, would not allow to be kissed above her neck line. It might just have been me, or she had a bad day, either case it did not help. I don't want to sound too negative, for some people this might be the very type of experinse they are looking for, so if your given the option to see her first and you like what you see then go ahead.

As I state on me recommendations, I will return, simply because I did see three other ladies and I can confirm they were all gems.

On a final point for the establishment itself, please ensure that all your pics are accurate and upto date and try where possible to list the services the lady provides in detail.

I will return if not barred as a result of this...(unfortunatly the recommendations only deal with the lady, not the establishment)

Service Provider's Rebuttal

Denise writes:

Dear Reader, i can assure you that the pictures you see of me on the Head Office Website are infact myself! They were taken only a few weeks ago, from our in house Photographer. I am very experienced at the work i do and enjoy it very much. I try and a give a 100% service everytime. However, there are going to be criticisms because you cannot please everyone. I feel that this client should have booked an appoinment over the phone first, with the exact girl of choice, as he does claim that he travelled 50 miles to visit us. He would have then been given one of the larger rooms. We advertise this fact on our website to save disappointment. There are two sides to every story as they say, and this is my first complaint so far at Head Office, many thanks for reading! Denise XXX
