The Premises:

Funplace is different to the other places I have visited. The room was big, the bed comfortable, clean towels, good shower. Offered a drink beforehand. Excellent on the telephone. Really impressed. Even having to hide in the cupboard to avoid other passing dignitaries had a certain charm.

The Lady:

Honey is 5'7 approx, early 20s, long brown hair, golden tanned skin, shaven with small landing strip. Black toenails didn't do anything for me personally.

The Story:

"What's that mark on your stomach?" asked Honey, totally oblivious to the fact that she had caused it minutes earlier, her long nails digging into my skin as she approached the point of orgasm.

Honey is charming, therapeutic, good fun to be with, and looks ridiculously cute when blissed out. She was diplomatic about my hopeless attempts at giving her a massage. I did get a book out of the library to learn but too much talking and I rather lost concentration; sorry about that. Her own massage technique is very impressive, though I opted to give rather than receive this time around; not so much a generous gesture, rather a desire to get my hands on her lovely body.

Having been cruelly rejected by the golden skinned temptress, poor pocket rocket and seven speed rabbit could only watch in envy as Magic Wand got all the attention. She even wanted his/her name afterwards.

I doubt our encounters are in any way typical but it does go to show Honey's adaptability; if she can cope with someone as difficult as me, teaching her tantric sex techniques, forever urging her to co-ordinate her breathing with tightening/relaxing her pussy muscles, then that says a lot.

Of course there is a downside. She is somewhat elusive. Her memory isn't great and sometimes there's a sense that an erotic catalyst is missing from the scene. But I feel really good after seeing her and that's the most important thing for me.

Much of my limited experience in the world of paid sex could reasonably be described as wretched but I suspect what will stay with me is the sight of Honey on top of me, eyes closed, her teeth biting into her lip, her toned body glowing, pumped full of pleasure, the Magic Wand attached to her clit, taking her onwards towards bliss.

Farewell. Take care of yourself.
