The Premises:

Her large "Dorma Bungalow" is located close to the sea a few minutes outside of Great Yarmouth. Parking is off road on the driveway of her house, the front of which is partly screened from the road by a high hedge. It is located in a very pleasant neighborhood and one feels totally secure. Her "activities room" is situated on the first floor and has its own fully equipped en-suite bathroom, the room is furnished with a professional massage table a huge bed !! etc. Shoes off at the front door please!!

The Lady:

Samantha is a gorgeous sexy cuddly lady she admits to being 40+ but would pass for being in her 30's. She has a bubbly personality and infectious smile and a sexy little giggle; her whole approach is warm, gentle and caring. Her website description of herself is not totally accurate, she has slimmed off a little but still has a beautifully rounded figure with glorious breasts and little hard nipples - to see her naked is an absolute vision. Her massage as well as her other techniques are second to none you have to experience it to believe it.

The Story:

On my first visit to Samantha I arrived as an extremely nervous "virgin punter" she chatted to me in a friendly way and put me at my ease, I had booked a "sexy Massage" but did not really know what to expect!! We started with an assisted shower (a new experience to me - "wow") followed up by a full body massage (which I'd had before) that was very professional. This was then followed with a session on the very large bed which was sheer bliss "wow" "wow" - I'll say no more !! Exhausted in more ways than one I was then led to a further assisted shower where again "wow"!! Hence my second visit, where thinking that I knew the routine I had been looking forward to a repeat performance. How naive can you be this was definitely a repeat performance but with knobs on (pardon the expression) I once again enjoyed the shower but asked Samantha to foreshorten the massage and thus extend the next stage. This turned out to be far beyond a replay of my first visit "wow-wow-ee". During the course of which I was introduced to experiences which I had never previously encountered "ahhhh", and I thought that I'd been around a bit. I should add that throughout the whole session I got the feeling that Samantha wholeheartedly enjoyed the activities equally as much as I did - what a hot lady!!

If you decide to visit this remarkable lady please treat her gently and with respect she is very receptive to love and kindness and you will be be adequately rewarded.

I am reluctant to advertise my visits as I do have twinges of jealousy knowing that others are equally enjoying her company, however if there are those of you out there who have not "punted" before (like I was not so long ago) then go and see this lady she is the "creme de la creme" and she will look after you whether you be a novice or a professional. Have a look at her website, I have not sampled her other services (whatever turns you on !) but I would expect that she is as equally adept and skilled in those other areas.

I look forward to our next encounter Samantha!!
