The Premises:

Helen came to my hotel room. She turned up bang on time after ringing to let me know she had arrived.

The Lady:

Great looking woman - well into her 50's with blond hair. Turned up looking very sexy in exactly what I had requested. Nice make up and good body for someone her age. Helen was very polite and well mannered, but wasted no time in getting on with things. As soon as we had exchanged plesantaries she moved in front of me, hoisted her skirt up and revealed that she was not wearing any knickers - exactly as I had asked. She then proceeded to pull my face into her wet pussy and ordered me to lick her to an orgasm which I duly obliged

The Story:

We had fantastic foreplay - she is pretty good at most things and not shy!! Great blow job although deep throat would have been nice - perhaps next time. The crowning moment was when she moved on top of me, kissing me and rubbing her sexy body all up and down me - before I knew it she had positioned herself over my hard cock and taken me bareback. I was a little surprised but she looked at me and told me not too worry just enjoy it. I did until I was about to come and warned her. She stopped riding me, and told me that she was too old to become pregnant so I could cum inside her - fantastic orgasm of my life. She is great!!
