The Premises:

Small flat 5 minutes from Edgware Road Station. Discreet entrance and easy to find. Plenty of metered parking nearby.

The Lady:

Initially attracted by those excellent pictures on the Agency's website. Looks friendly, natural, innocent and cheeky at the same time. And what a body, what a complexion. Advertised as being from France. The pics are genuine, but they may have used an airbrush in one or two places and she was certainly somewhat paler and less tanned looking than on their website. Still, Helen is in her early twenties, comes with a pretty face and a very well proportioned body, so no complaints.

The Story:

Helen is very welcoming, has a warm smile, and we started embracing like old friends long before the money was even mentioned. The flat was small but cosy, and very warm - it needed to be, with freezing temperatures outside. I have read several reviews of a 'Helen' who works for this agency, they were not altogether positive, but maybe they relate to someone else. In my book, Helen is a real star. We managed to fit a lot of activity into an action-packed hour, with Helen sometimes taking the lead, sometimes following mine. I don't think she's French, her accent wasn't quite right, so possibly another Eastern European, but if so, it hardly matters and she is one of the very best by any standards. A great sex-worker, and intelligent conversation too. You could take her to the best restaurants and she won't let you down.
