The Story:

I was one of Kristina's greatest admirers last time she was here in '06, and we swapped emails after she left to go back to Italy to finish university. What was going to be a short stay there turned into something else, i.e. a lot of world travelling, and I had almost given up hope she would return to London.

But here she is, in a classic basement flat in Mayfair next to the Ritz. She hasn't changed, still matches her pics, but with just a little more poise & confidence, and English more fluent, but still with those lovely little mistakes now & then.

I'm not going into what we did, but suffice it to say it was like meeting a former lover and discovering her again, the beautiful little breasts, perfect slim body, (& nice finding that tattoo where I left it). Most of all the sparkling personality and great sense of fun unchanged. Kristina was a perfect re-encounter, and although I hate sharing her, she's gotta pay the rent, so everybody that remembers her get round there!

Look after her well, she's an asset to the capital.
