The Premises:

House not far from Eastville/Fishponds. She is having some renovations done making a spare room into a larger bathroom. The bedroom is very nice. Spotlessly clean. Free nearby on-street parking, a nice garden outside.

The Lady:

Pretty Thai lady (the hair and the eyes do it for me), who claims to be 40-something but could quite easily pass for 30s.

The Story:

My first ever visit to an escort (after a long period of being out of a relationship), and to say I was a bit nervous would be an understatement.

I had formed so many preconceived ideas before I got there, I'd scared myself half to death, and wasn't sure what on earth to expect.

However, once I arrived, Maya really helped me, and made me feel very comfortable. She's very friendly, caring, and at no point did anything feel rushed. I won't go into the sordid details, but I experienced some things like never before.

The only problem I had was that since I've been, my friends have noticed a big silly grin across my face, and want to know what made me so happy, almost overnight. I'll never tell.
