The Premises:

OK chain hotel. Plenty of parking. Perfectly safe. Good directions from Tara; no-one on reception so just walked straight up. Room typical for a mid-market chain hotel.

The Lady:

Charming and attractive lady, late 30s, gorgeous red-blond hair, nice figure, lovely breasts. Definitely the lady in the photos. Very responsive!

The Story:

Tara seemed almost as nervous as I was, but she soon put us both at our ease. I took along a bottle of wine, which we shared, and we talked for 20 minutes, or so - well worth it as Tara is a very intelligent lady, with a very interesting (and not always easy) life. The time was well spent, as we were both relaxed and happy in each other's company before we moved on to other things. Initially she came across as a restrained GFE, but that was only half the picture.

Tara gradually eased us to the bed and out of our clothes. I forget the precise chain of events (who cares about precision?) but (I think) after a kiss and cuddle and some great OWO we moved into RO, which is when I discovered her true colours! Tara is one sexy and highly sexed lady and she just loves receiving (and giving) oral (and sex). She must have come at least 6 times (I am not usually that good!!) and she really did seem to enjoy it.

After a rest (I needed it) we switched back to OWO (boy is she good!) and then on with the cover and into cowgirl. Tara has more energy than most 20 year olds and she gives as good as she takes! I lay back and thought of England, as I was determined to enjoy her for as long as possible. After a long time she eased off me and completed the job by hand - which was also excellent.

By now we were already over time, but after recovering and cleaning up in the bathroom, I finally departed - no rush whatsoever.

In summary, a really lovely lady. Tara is a pleasure to meet and be with and is someone I would happily take anywhere. She provides a great GFE but with more energy and passion than any GF I can remember. I left walking on air. And did I mention that she loves sex?
