The Premises:

Crys has a lovely clean and spacious flat in the Clifton area. It's easy to find and there's plenty of free parking both on her road and in nearby roads. The area is safe and secure and her place is totally inconspicuous.

The Lady:

Having spent some time looking round her website I sort of knew what to expect but as she doesn't show her face I was pleased that my intuition that she was going to be gorgeous turned out to be the case. Crys is beautiful but in addition to her lovely face she also has a very sexy body and dresses to thrill.

The Story:

I had told Crys that it was my birthday and my time with her provided me with my best present. Dressed in the red dress from her website and knee high boots she welcomed me with a kiss and lead me into her flat where she proceeded to provide two hours of mind blowing sexual entertainment. Crys described herself to me as a professional and I agree with her, she is an extremely skilled worker and her performance was first class. She has a couple of strategically placed mirrors where you can watch what's happening although for most of the time I couldn't concentrate on this as she was driving me crazy with what she was doing, taking me to heaven as she described it! In between two visits to heaven she also gave me a very nice massage and she has a good line in conversation which is articulated in a sexy Eastern European accent that was a bit of a turn on in itself. I don't normally write reports but Crys was so good I'm making an exception in her case and I can't wait to see her again.
