A discreet location near the station. Entry round the back and unobserved. Interior shabby but clean.

The Lady:

A black girl in her twenties, lovely trim figure. Lively and friendly.

The Story:

This place has different ladies each day of the week, and quite a fast turnover. The quality of the experience varies, and a year or two back I gave up on the place for a while, because visits had been uninspiring.

Recently, though, there has been a great improvement. I've visited four times in the past six months, and three of the experiences have been first-rate (the other was OK).

There was Vicky, a very bright young girl, with astonishing breasts and a nice chattiness (Sample quote: "My mother would kill me if she knew I was doing this. She thinks I'm a nurse.") And there was Susie, whose massage (mostly with her breasts) was wonderful.

And now there is Kate, young, black and very beautiful, with a nice earthy Midlands accent and a very professional attitude. I was there for just massage and hand relief. Some ladies don't bother too much with quickie clients, but Kate made sure that the whole experience was lovely, with lingering attention paid to exactly the right places.

A terrific lady, and one worth coming back to. I think she's mostly there on Fridays and Sundays.
