The Story:

Well organised party, my 3rd visit to LM and still impressed. The main reason for this my first field report is the hope that Lady M and Moss reads this as it not only is a field report but constructive criticism to improve. All the girls at the events I attended did their best and the majority succeeded in keeping all the guests happy, Unfortunately the brazilian girls in attendance did not seem to want to mix with guests and did not want to be separated from each other. They did not perform up to any acceptable standard and only did oral with condoms, not as advertised, and didnt seem really interested in sex but in wanking the guests. It would be perfect and the best parties if the brazilians were to perform or LM get some others instead of the current group she has

Service Provider's Rebuttal

The establishment writes:

Thank you for taking the time to post an fr giving constructive criticism. We always welcome it as we seek to continually improve. However, I would say that had you approached us at the party, we would have been able to discuss the matter with you and avoided misunderstanding. Your report leaves me unsure whether your criticism covers every one of the 7 Brazilians on our site at the time you mentioned or the 2 present that particular day. Likewise, I am unsure of what standards you think they fall short on and how they fail to mix with guests. This leaves me with a problem as all previous reports and feedback I receive rate the Brazilian girls very highly. Perhaps if you contact me directly, we can sort the matter out.

One thing I would like to point out is that we do not advertise, either in writing or verbally, the girls offering any particular services. Whilst most of the girls do owo, it is entirely at their discretion as is anything done at a party.
